Measuring Behavior 2016

Welcome to the 10th Measuring Behavior conference. We hope that you will enjoy the experience of spending time in one of Europe's great cities and that you will find the conference both stimulating and rewarding.

MB2016 has a high-quality programme including 9 oral sessions, 10 symposia, 3 keynotes, 47 posters, 10 demos, 2 tutorials and 1 presentation from Elsevier. A conference schedule is in your delegate pack, online and at the venue.

Presenters Information:

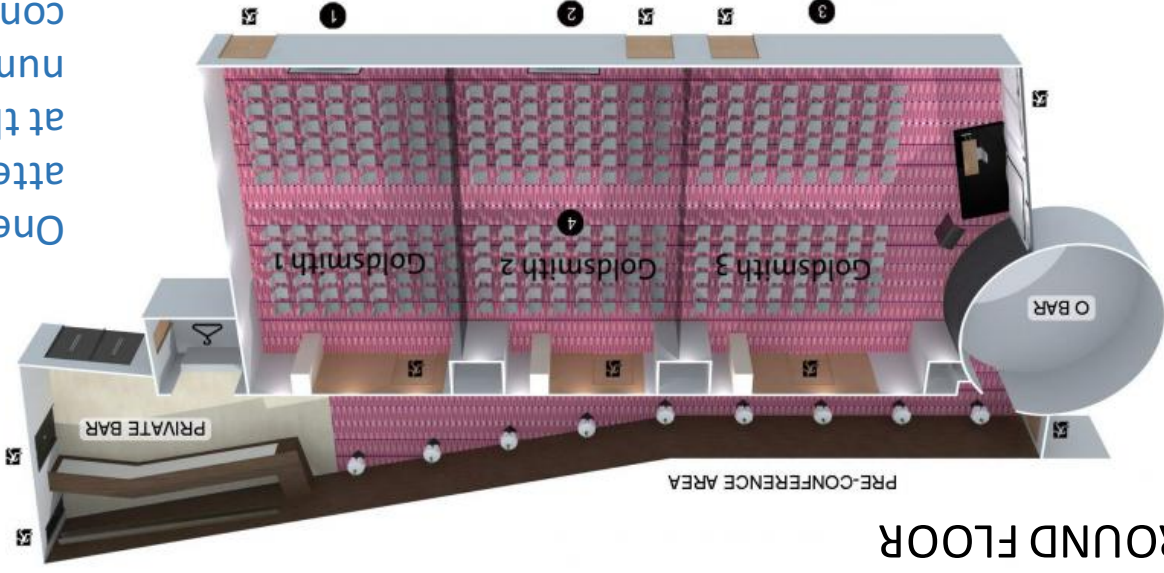

Please come to your room before your session begins and let the session chair know you are there. There are windows laptops with Powerpoint installed and wifi access in every room. Please either use this laptop or use your own. The projectors can handle VGA and HDMI inputs. Every oral paper has 15 minutes in total (talk & questions) allocated. Every symposia paper has 20 minutes in total allocated. Symposia or oral sessions may have post-speaker events planned, such as panel discussions or additional question time. The session chair will know if there is anything planned.
